Youth Camp is an international camp for young people, bringing together participants from Sweden, the Diocese of Gloucester in England, the Evangelical Church in Hesse and Nassau in Germany, and the Corrymeela Community in Northern Ireland.

The camp language is English, but you don´t need to speak it perfectly to take part. Curiosity, community and a positive attitude are what matter most. Recommended age: 16-25.

There will be time for conversations, worship, creativity, music, winter activities and hanging out with friends from different countries, all in the beautiful surroundings of Stiftsgården Rättvik.

Accommodation & meals (no participation fee)

Accommodation and meals (bed linen not included): 1 450 SEK
Bed linen: 135 SEK
Meals only: 1 350 SEK
